

STYLE OF INTEREST

DESCRIPTION

You are considered as someone who has an interest or preference on reviving creative ideas and activities that can be done alone. You might prefer a job that is challenging your idea and has a high level of privacy. Some of the activities that might fit you are reading, writing, and creative hobbies like painting and music.

TO DEVELOP

To develop, you had better nurture your interest until it yields a respected result. Keep developing your creativity, hopefully in the future you can create a creative industry out of your ideas. Practice your social openness, do not enjoy being alone too much that it makes you perceived as someone who is neither socialize nor care enough. Once in a while, share your idea and creativity with the others, cooperate with those who have a mutual idea and creativity with you. Make a synergy. Make a network.
